From the vast area of Siberia/Russia, a new dub sound is created. Kirill aka Dub-I has been composing and recording electronic music for the last 5 years, keeping his productions hidden from the mainstream. Inspired by the Rastafarian movement, he dares to combine the roots/reggae dub with the modern sounds of his environment, creating irie soundscapes, pushing the dub as we know, it into new unexplored areas.

Dubophonic is proud to present Dub-I's "Creation" as the first release. The name of the album symbolizes not only the birth of our new netlabel, but also the birth of a new sound. His album, released only in digital format, aims to lead all sound-travellers to adventurous dub journeys of experimental ambiance. Dub-I's special vision on dub music is to fill the heart of each and every one of us with love and peace, through the earthly vibrations and the deep musicality of his tracks.

The ten tracks, of which four are just over two minutes long, are different than the conventional style of dub, as we know it today. Nevertheless we should be proud of his musical innovations, since dub is all about experimenting. Enjoy and meditate!
