VIOLETCURRENTS

LIGHTHOUSE

The Ouroboros: infinite loops, the physicality of hard repetition, the ambience of imperfect sameness...

Oroboron netlabel explores the creative potential of cyclical music.

Our first release Lighthouse is a patchwork of tape loops that grow, hiss and fade, only to reappear again and again in different arrangements. The sounds bounce around in vast echo chambers, waxing and waning on a churning sea of feedback and surface noise.

Violetcurrents is Belgian drone/tape loop producer Thomas De Bauw, who has self-released several titles since 2008.
