TANGERINE STARS

The Ouroboros: infinite loops, the physicality of hard repetition, the ambience of imperfect sameness... Oroboron netlabel explores the creative potential of cyclical music.

On Non Photo Blue, short intervals of guitar string picking are stripped from their context and looped in series. With the tonal qualities of the instrument exposed to extreme repetition, the album's crystal-clear sound gives birth to a field of ringing hammers, pealing bells, and the soft rhythmic motions of their echoes. Behind an energetic interplay of clicks, pops and noise, song structure re-emerges.

Tangerine Stars is a solo artist from Keokuk, Iowa. Active since 2008, he quickly turned toward a reverberating, strumming guitar sound reminiscent of his home state: unmoving, wide open and lonesome. His debut album "Norman" was released on Chipdipdrops in 2012.
