Title: Painting With The Saints
By: The 21st Century
Cat.#: esc.rec.26
Release date: December 5, 2009

The 21st Century is an ongoing audio-project by visual artist Hidde van Schie. This album is a collection of improvisations recorded in 2009. Some solo, some together with Choca Alcazaba or Brendon Blommaert.

The release date of Painting With The Saints coincides with the celebration of Sinterklaas (Saint Nicholas). Seemed fitting.

Free download!

Hope you enjoyed this free download as well as I did. If you do, please consider thanking or even supporting the artist(s) and label who made this free release possible. I'm sure you'll find an appropriate way to do this when you visit www.escrec.com

Subscription?

If you (like me) enjoy physical releases with well designed artwork even better than digital downloads, you might try the more daring approach of ordering music: the esc.rec. subscription. For only 50 euro the first 7 physical releases after receiving your payment are automatically yours! We will send them to you as soon as they come out. This is not only an adventurous way of buying music, it is also a really really good deal...
